GALVEZTON AND AMELIA.

OFFICIAL PAPERS.

Selections from the documents transmitted to the House of Representatives of the United States by the President.

OF AMELIA ISLAND.

Mr. M'Intosh to Mr. Crawford.

The Refuge, near Jefferson, Camden Co. (Georgia,) Oct. 30.

DEAR SIR—The last letter I had the honor to address to you, was on the 9th of August; shortly after, the public papers announced that you had left Washington on a visit to Georgia. A few weeks after, I thought it not imprudent to venture out to my swamp plantation on the Satilla, and since, have been very little at St. Mary's. Since General M'Gregor, and the greater part of his officers, (some of whom were of respectable standing in the United States) have left Amelia Island, there has not been so much ingenuity made use of in misrepresenting the conduct and intentions of the invaders of East Florida; and the accounts which are published of them are for the most part generally correct. The present Chief, Commodore Aury, got the command very much against the inclinations of Sheriff Hubbard, and Colonel Irwin.—When he arrived at Fernandina, with his squadron of Privateers and prizes, they were entirely without money. He declared that if he gave them any aid, it must be on the condition of being made commander in chief: and that as general M'Gregor never had any commission whatever, the flag of the republic must be struck, and that of the Mexican hoisted, and that Fernandina should be considered as a conquest of the Mexican republic, (under which he was commissioned) without its being necessary that any other part of the province of East Florida should be conquered." Hubbard and Irwin reluctantly agreed to the mortifying condition of resigning the command. They were never friendly with the commodore, and endeavoured, but in vain, to gain over by intrigue, a part of his men. Their own party considerably increasing shortly after, they were several times on the point of coming to open war with Aury, and his followers; and under the pretence that Aury's forces were composed chiefly of brigand negroes. A few days before Mr. Hubbard's death, (who was called governor without having any power,) Aury marched to his quarters with a body of armed men, and obliged him to make such concessions as drove him to an act of intemperance, which soon after terminated his existence.

Since the death of this gentleman, there has been little or no disturbance among them. But it would appear as if the suspicions of the Frenchman did not die with Hubbard, as none of his privateers have left Fernandina.

The parties are designated as the American and French, and I have been assured by individuals belonging to them both, that each are anxiously looking for reinforcements. Aury has a number of Frenchmen, who were, it is said, officers of Bonaparte. They find it their interest as well as inclination to support their countrymen.

His great dependence, however, is on about one hundred and thirty brigand negroes—a set of desperate bloody dogs.

The American party, which is rather more numerous than the other, consist generally of American, English and Irish sailors: but now have no declared leader. Irwin wants either spirit or popularity to assume that character. For my own part, I believe that in point of morals, patriotism, and intentions, they are exactly on a par. Aury's blacks however make their neighborhood extremely dangerous, to a population like ours, and I fear if they be not expelled from that place, some unhappy consequences may fall on our country. It is said that they have declared that if they are in danger of being overpowered, they will call to their aid every negro within their reach.—Indeed I am told that the language of slaves in Florida, is already such as is extremely alarming.

The Patriots at Fernandina had about ten days ago an unexpected and strange reinforcement. Twenty half pay British officers, by the way of Turk's Island, arrived at St. John's river, and mistaking it for Amelia, a Colonel and a couple of others were made prisoners by the Spaniards.—The others got safe to Fernandina. But finding that Sir Gregor M'Gregor had abandoned it, they determined immediately on doing so too.

Extracts of a letter from Mr. Clark, Collector at St. Mary's to Mr. Crawford.

Collector's Office, St. Mary's, Georgia, 1st Nov. 1817.

Honorable William H. Crawford,

SIR—I hasten to communicate the following information, by a letter received from a gentleman residing on St. John's river, East Florida. The subject in its bearings, presents considerations of the first importance, as to our political relations with Spain.

The following is extracted from the same:

"Pablo River, St. John's, October 24th 1817.

About sun-set a yawl boat arrived at the landing, when seven persons came from her who requested shelter for the night, and some refreshment, stating they were half pay British officers of the army and navy; from the Island of St. Thomas, on their way to England via the United States—and they had mistaken this bar for St. Mary's; that they left the schooner in the offing under that impression and intended to send her a pilot by the return of the boat.

After staying all night, they embarked at day light, having procured a negro pilot to conduct them inland to Fernandina.

Colonel M'Donald in thanking me for the hospitality he had received, said he felt bound as a gentleman to be candid, and accordingly informed me that they had lately arrived from London at St Thomas, in the ship Two Friends, with a great number of officers, and munitions of war in abundance: that he had with him thirty officers on board the schooner: that he would command in this quarter: that they would have men sufficient, and a profusion of every thing necessary for active operations: that they wanted a war with Spain, and that he had power to draw on England for 100,000 pounds sterling:—that they would have a fine train of artillery; and that all these supplies were actually on their way or shipping: that a number of gun brigs and sloops would leave England, reported for the East Indies; but were bound directly here and South America: that they were much disappointed at St. Thomas, on hearing that M'Gregor had left Amelia Island, and that the capture of Amelia was known prior to their leaving England.*

These officers have a soldier like and genteel appearance, and all have their commissions; they said "their object in leaving the schooner was to reconnoitre."

They have all since arrived at Fernandina.

I have the honor to remain, &c.
(Signed) ARCHD. CLARK.

* Captain Thomas was at St. Mary's with Cockburn, and lieutenant of the ship that fired on gunboat 168, after the peace.

Albany, N. Y. Dec. 2.

THE ALBINESS.

We took an early opportunity yesterday morning to visit the celebrated Albiness, who has recently arrived in this city from England via Canada, and were gratified at finding a large circle of ladies and gentlemen already assembled at her room. Her deportment was uncommonly correct, without either a timidity that would have been inconsistent with her pursuit, or any improper forwardness that might render her an object of disgust.

Her features cannot be called beautiful but her complexion is of the most transparent purity, though its appearance is certainly unnatural. Her hair is of the brightest flax colour, resembling tresses of fine floating silk, and falls over her shoulder in the most luxuriant folds. Her eyes are of a bright pink colour.—They have a tremulous motion of which she is herself unconscious, and vary their hues as she changes her position and receives the reflection of light.—How the phenomenon is to be explained, we leave for our medical and philosophical friends. We can only say that we regarded it with singular curiosity. She states that there are six children of the family, three of which have dark hair and eyes, and the eyes, complexion and hair of the other two, are like her own.

ALEXANDRIA:
SATURDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1817.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Thursday, December 25, 1817.

It was expected that the bill providing for the surviving officers and soldiers, mariners and marines of the revolutionary war, would, after all the discussion it had received, and all the talk it had given rise to for so many days, have had nothing further to undergo than the mere form of being read a third time and passing. Yesterday, however, when it was brought up for those operations, a new obstruction was thrown in its way, in the shape of a motion, made by Mr. Lowndes, to recommit it, with instructions to limit its provisions to those who had enlisted for three years and who did not desert, and to those officers only who continued to serve till the war was over.

This motion gave rise to a sort of debate, or rather desultory, snip-snap conversation, which consumed the greater part of the day, and terminated in the rejection of the motion. General Smith, General Bloomfield, Mr. Edwards, Mr. Comstock, and Mr. Johnson of Kentucky, opposed it—Mr. Johnson displaying, as he usually does when requisite, much animation and warm benevolence. Had this amendment taken place, many of that very meritorious corps called The Flying Camp, would have been ousted of the benefactions they well deserved—and all those who were engaged in the capture of Lord Cornwallis, at York-Town, which put an end to further military operations, and who, in consequence of their being no longer wanted, retired before the signature of the treaty of peace, would be excluded from all participation in the benefits of the bill.

The bill remitting the duties on the picture presented by Mr. West to the Pennsylvania Hospital, was passed unanimously. Mr. Newton made a short but handsome speech on the occasion.

From the Nat. Intelligencer, Dec. 25.

We felicitate our fellow-citizens that, on this holy and festive day, we can announce the pleasing information of the passage, in the House of Representatives, of the bill to redeem a part of the national obligation to the survivors of the revolutionary warriors, who need the sustaining arm of the government for their support.

The bill, as it has finally passed, provides that "every commissioned and non-commissioned officer, musician, mariner, marine, and private soldier, who served in the revolutionary war, in any of the regiments raised by the authority of congress, or of any of the states, or in the navy of either of the states or of the United States, previous to the treaty of peace with Great Britain, of 3d September, 1783, who are yet citizens of the U. States, and are, or who hereafter shall be reduced to indigence, and incapable of procuring subsistence, and who shall have substantiated his incapacity in the manner by the bill directed, shall receive a pension from the United States; if an officer, of twenty dollars per month, during life; if a non-commissioned officer, musician, mariner, marine or private soldier, of eight dollars per month, during life, &c." The bill has yet to pass the ordeal of the Senate.

APPOINTMENTS,

By the President, with the consent of the Senate.

ROBERT STANARD, of Virginia, attorney of the United States for the district of Virginia.

GEORGE G. BARRELL, of Massachusetts, consul of the United States at Malaga.

JOHN WILLIAMS WALKER, secretary of the Alabama territory. [Nat. Int.

It is mentioned in a Bordeaux article of the 5th November that Reynault St. Jean de Angely, who had left this country for Holland, had been arrested at Hessingue, where he had just landed.

A Paris paper of the 30th October gives the singular information that loaves of bread have been found in the ruins of the Herculaneum, still bearing the baker's stamp.

The rumor that the Ottoman Porte had agreed to deliver up to Russia the Servian chief who murdered Czerney Georges is confirmed by an article from Ulm. [Balt. Patriot.

IMPORTANT COMMERCIAL INFORMATION.

The American consul at Malaga writes to his friend at Gibraltar, under date of the 8th of November, as follows: "An order has just been communicated to me, that American vessels are henceforward to pay a tonnage duty of one dollar per ton in all the ports of Spain, of which I will pass you a communication."

PENNSYLVANIA GOVERNOR.

On Tuesday last Wm. Findly, esq. was inducted into the office of governor of the state of Pennsylvania. When he had taken the oath of office, he delivered his inaugural address to the Senate and House of Representatives; appointed Thomas Sergeant, esq of Philadelphia, secretary of the commonwealth; and issued a proclamation, "confirming and continuing all appointments to office made, and all commissions heretofore lawfully issued, for the term of 4 months from the date of the proclamation, unless the said appointments and commissions shall be sooner superseded and annulled." We have received from a Philadelphia correspondent printed copies of the inaugural address, of the proclamation above mentioned, and of the official statement of the votes for governor. We have neither time nor room to publish either of the articles this day. The result of the official canvass was as follows: for Mr. Findly 66 331—for Mr. Heister 59 272—majority for Mr. Findly 7,059.

On Monday three petitions from citizens of the counties of Philadelphia and Lancaster, and Cumberland, contesting the election of Mr. Findly, were presented to the Senate, and laid on the table without being read; and on Tuesday morning a member from Lancaster moved a postponement of the inauguration of Mr. F. on the ground that the contesting of his election commenced when the petitions had been presented to the speaker, although they had not been read. After a very warm discussion, which lasted until near 12 o'clock, the previous question was called, and the question taken on the adoption of the resolution, which was lost—yeas 89, nays 35. ALGERINE FLEET, &c.

Captain J. Orne, of Salem, a passenger in schooner Thetis, which left Cadiz October 19, informs that it was confidently asserted there that the Algerines had captured a French and an English vessel

He saw a letter from Alicant which states that on the 12th of October that city was inundated and partly destroyed by water from the mountains, in a violent storm. Many vessels were driven on shore and lost—among them an English cutter, but no Americans. Loss estimated at 5 or 600,000 dollars.

FROM AMELIA ISLAND.

The new provisional legislature of the Floridas assembled at Amelia Island on the 1st instant, and after being sworn faithfully to discharge the duties for which they were elected, proceeded to ballot for a president, when the choice fell upon colonel Irwin, who accepted the appointment. A weekly newspaper, entitled the "Telegraph of the Floridas," has been established at Amelia Island, for the purpose of giving publicity to the acts of the provisional legislature, and to such other information as may be interesting and important to the welfare of the people in that quarter.

New-York, Dec. 22.

The post Chaise from Philadelphia arrived at Powles Hook about a quarter past six o'clock on Saturday evening last. The persons employed in the steam boat refusing to come over, the passengers engaged a small boat, with the exception of Mr. Polk, of the United States' navy, and his lady, who remained at the Hook. On the passage over, the sloop Amenia, captain Palin, of Poughkeepsie, in going in stays, ran on board the boat, and instantly capsized her. The following gentlemen passengers were saved with difficulty from a watery grave:

Mr. Nicholas Gouverneur, of N. York; John Balbi, of do.; William R. Swift, of Baltimore; T. A. Conover, of the United States' navy; Baron Von Hauffman, of Germany.

One elderly gentleman, of a very reputable appearance and deportment, name unknown,* was drowned. The passengers' baggage was mostly lost, together with $25,000 in specie.

* Since ascertained to be Mr. Francis Lynam, merchant of the city—a native of Sheffield, England. His body was yesterday taken up and conveyed to his house in Dey-street, for interment.

It is very much to be regretted that proper means were not used to restore Mr. Lynam, as he was living some time after he was taken out of the water. The sudden dispensation of Providence has deprived an amiable family of one of the best of fathers, and the community of a valuable member. It will afford some satisfaction to those abroad doing business with Mr. L. to learn, that in his pocket was found 40,000 dollars in bills, which were not even wet.

The subscription for the relief of the sufferers by the late fire at St. Johns, amounts, already, to about 3000 dollars.—We understand an application has been made to Mr. Bagot, the British Minister, for permission to load an American vessel at this port, with provisions, &c. for the distressed at the above place, and there is no doubt of its success.

Communicated for the Baltimore Patriot.

American Consulate, Liverpool, 22d October, 1817.

SIR—It so frequently happens that informalities in the Tobacco Manifests of our vessels arriving at this port, have occasioned great loss, delay, expense and other inconveniences, as well to the ship owners as to the owners of the cargoes, I beg leave to submit to you the propriety of affixing the enclosed notice in some conspicuous part of your office, for the information of those who may be in any way interested in shipments of Tobacco from your port to this, recommending the strictest adherence to what is prescribed. I have the honor to be, with much respect, your most obedient servant,

JAMES MAURY,
Consul of the U. S. for Liverpool, &c.
The Collector of the Customs, Baltimore.

NOTICE TO SHIPPERS OF TOBACCO TO ENGLAND.

In the title of the Manifest should be inserted the number of Hogsheads or Packages on board, in words at full, where laden, names and surnames of the Master, name of the Vessel, Port where owned, her built Tonnage, whence from, whither bound, number of men navigated by, and that three fourths of them are American citizens.

Then should follow, in distinct and separate columns, the Mark, Number, Tare and Nett weight of each Hogshead or Package, with the names of the Shippers and Consignees.

The Oath of the Master to the truth of the Manifest must be endorsed thereon; repeating the name of the Vessel, where owned, where laden, the whole number of Hogsheads or Packages taken on board—and declare that the Mark, Number and Nett weights of each Hogshead or Package are correct.

The Oath is to be made before the British Consul, if any at the Port or near it; if none, then before the chief Officer or Magistrate of the place; in which latter case, there must be furnished a certificate from some person duly authorised, stating that there was no British Consul at that time either at or near that Port.

In two instances, the Oaths to the Manifests have not been admitted, because the words qualified to were used instead of sworn to.

In Tobacco Manifests for this place, the most exact adherence to the foregoing is particularly recommended by

JAMES MAURY,
Consul of the U. S. for Liverpool, &c.
Consulate of the United States,

The New-York National Advocate of the 22d instant contains a letter from John Williams, (an American citizen) addressed to his sister in New-York, dated at Staten Island, Dec. 8th, 1817, in which he represents himself as being on board H. B. M. ship Esk, lying at the Island, having been impressed.

The editor of the Advocate proceeds to state, that in consequence of the information contained in the letter and other testimony, the recorder of the city had issued a writ of Habeas Corpus against captain Lenox, commander of the Esk, a copy of which was served on him the 12th instant; on the 15th no return was made to the writ, and the Esk proceeded to sea with the man on board, no further attempt being made by any of the constituted authorities at New-York to molest the British captain, or to relieve the impressed American seaman.

THE DAY.

What an astonishing association of ideas does the recurrence of this day produce—on this very day the shepherds were watching their fleecy care on the mountains of Judea. A light was seen in the firmament, and while the spectators were astonished at the splendor, a voice was heard in the Heavens from the lips of Angels announcing glory to God and peace to all mankind. How astonishing is it to think that on this day the Saviour of the universe was born—that all those denominated christians arose from what was this day promulgated to the world that a child was born in a manger, that this boy, first seen by these illiterate shepherds, should have burst the mansions of the grave, and opened eternal light, joy, and glory to man; and that every sinner, through his sufferings might find mercy! The mind starts at the bare statement of such a proposition, and is lost in admiration at the boundless flow of Almighty Benevolence.—We ask, is this little child, born among the Oxer, that resplendent personage so long foretold by the prophets, who is to be the connecting link between God and man, and to introduce us to a more delightful Paradise than Adam left? Is he to redeem mankind from the primeval curse, and to associate us with Angels again?—Is he to be the personage to whom mighty Emperors and Kings shall kneel in humble reverence, and to whom all the Angels in Heaven shall pay homage?—Yes, this is that adorable character whose birth is announced from the lips of the celestial hosts—our Saviour, our Redeemer, and our judge! When he first appeared upon earth, his birth was announced by a divine benediction in these heart consoling terms, glory to God and peace to all creatures. His advent was preceded by the olive branch of Divine mercy. And shall a day that revealed from Heaven the astonishing fact, that man was [illegible] given and allowed once more to take his rank among the Angels, to be past over with indifference?—No let us approach with all humility the manger of Bethlehem—the same star that sparkled over the head of our infant Redeemer, and lighted the Shepherds on their way, will be a guide to our footsteps. Let us tread in their footsteps as we approach this hallowed mansion, and echo the voice of the announcing angels, and exclaim glory to God in the highest, and peace to all creatures!

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

A gentleman returning from Baltimore to the country, was on Saturday afternoon, about 3 o'clock, stopped by five highwaymen, armed with pistols & knives at the six mile stone, on the York turnpike road, and robbed of his pocket book containing 500 dollars. On refusing to deliver the money, a scuffle ensued, in which he was so severely cut as to disqualify him for further resistance, one of his hands being rendered useless; and his person otherwise severely bruised.—His waggoner attempted to rescue him, but was prevented by two of the highwaymen presenting their pistols, and threatening to shoot him. NOTICE.

☞ The police constables and watchmen are hereby required to be vigilant in the detection of all such persons who shall be guilty of the unlawful and dangerous practice of firing guns, &c. within the limits of the corporation, particularly on Christmas and New Year's Eve. It is hoped all well disposed citizens will aid the public officers in detecting and bringing to punishment every offender of this description. The danger of this practice is much greater than the thoughtless are aware of. By firing guns, especially (as is the practice) in the night, there is considerable risk of setting houses on fire, as well as injury to individuals who may be passing through the streets. Steps will be taken to discover all who do offend in this particular; if detected the penalty of the law will be enforced. Parents, masters and mistresses are therefore requested to restrain their children, apprentices and servants, and not to furnish them with the means of transgressing the law.

Sully for Sale.

THIS estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty two miles from Alexandria, and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situation is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry, Plaister of Paris acting with powerful and immediate effect on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation; and those, now untilled, are covered with red clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty; the collection of table fruit is choice and various. The mansion is spacious and well constructed: the outhouses are conveniently situated, and the whole have been lately thoroughly repaired and painted. The farm houses, which are all nearly new, are expensive and excellent in their kind.

For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate for an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unincumbered.

A number of well taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utensils of all kinds, and the crops of the present year, if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.

Application may be made to the subscriber, living on the premises, next the post-office at Pleasant Valley, in Fairfax.

James Kennedy & Son,

BOOKSELLERS,
KING-STREET, ALEXANDRIA,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from Lee's Medicine Store, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions
Lowness of spirits
Loss of appetite	Indigestion
Impurity of blood	Melancholy
Hysteric'l affection	Gout in the stomach
Inward weaknesses and debility	Pains in the limbs
	Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.
